This enjoyable annual event is unparalleled, with no close comparison to it within this sector. The evening is a unique opportunity for members of our industry to socialise in pleasant circumstances.

Operators

Have your employees worked hard over the year, then why not reward them for their commitment by hosting a table. Or are there some special customers you would like to entertain, why not invite them to this truly unique event.

Suppliers

All the major mining and quarrying companies support the IMQS Dinner Dance, which is why this event is an excellent opportunity for you to network, cement old contacts and create new business. Don't let your competitors avail of this occasion in your absence.
